Course Synopsis

This upper intermediate level course aims at helping students with their academic goals, especially in relation to writing. The course offers an integrated process-product approach to writing from topic and audience considerations to planning, organising and developing texts.

Among the writing skills students will be exposed to in the course are writing expository and argumentative essays, using evidence effectively, making citations, summarising texts, proof reading and editing. Students in the course will be given the opportunity to orally share their views about their writing in progress and their final products.
